

West Virginia Lottery Commission to Accept Public Comments on Limited Video Lottery Rebid

The West Virginia Lottery Commission will begin formal discussions on the total number of limited video lottery terminal permits available for the 2011 LVL Rebid process. The Commission will also be setting the minimum bid amount for permits during this time. A public comment period on this topic has been opened to all interested parties.

The Commission will be accepting written comments for consideration from all interested parties until 5:00 PM on Monday, June 14, 2010.

All persons wishing to comment on this topic should send written responses only to the West Virginia Lottery at the address listed below:

West Virginia Lottery Commission
Attn: Kate Casto
P.O. Box 2067
Charleston, West Virginia 25327

First Limited Video Lottery Public Meeting – June 29, 2010

The West Virginia Lottery will be holding two public meetings to discuss the rebidding of limited video lottery terminal permits under provisions of The Limited Video Lottery Act, for the ten-year term commencing July 1, 2011.

Meetings will be open to all interested parties and will cover topics including:

- How and When to Submit a Bid
- How to Post a 100% Bid Bond
- Available Preferences
- Qualifications and Requirements for Licensure
- How to Buy and Set-up Machines

The first meeting for interested parties will be held in the northern part of the state and has been scheduled as follows:

Tuesday, June 29, 2010
1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Lakeview Resort
Morgantown, West Virginia

The second meeting will be held in the southern part of the state and has been scheduled in Charleston on July 7, 2010. Details for this meeting will also be advertised.

Second Limited Video Lottery Public Meeting - July 7, 2010

The West Virginia Lottery will be holding the second public meeting to discuss the rebidding of limited video lottery terminal permits under provisions of The Limited Video Lottery Act, for the ten-year term commencing July 1, 2011.

The meeting will be open to all interested parties and will cover topics including:

- How and When to Submit a Bid
- How to Post a 100% Bid Bond
- Available Preferences
- Qualifications and Requirements for Licensure
- How to Buy and Set-up Machines

The second meeting for interested parties will be held in the southern part of the state and has been scheduled as follows:

Wednesday, July 7, 2010
1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Charleston Civic Center
Charleston, West Virginia

The first public meeting for interested parties was held in the northern part of the state on June 29, 2010. This will be the final public meeting scheduled to discuss this topic.